

RUTGERS

University Muslim
Alumni Association

1st Annual RU Muslim Alumni Association Reunion Dinner

Who is RUMAA?

A group of graduates who care about helping others and establishing a network of future Muslim mentors.

Why a reunion?

Because there are thousands of Rutgers Muslim Alumni and we've never connected. Think about it...job & friendship networking, fabulous talk, & re-grouping with familiar faces or meeting new people!

What?

The Honorable Hany Mawla -- NJ Superior Court's First Muslim American Judge (and Rutgers Alumni) will be speaking; Delicious halal dinner; Established professionals ready and able to offer advice on the job market as well as provide assistance for post-graduate education or entrepreneurship guidance.

When?

Saturday, June 18th; 5:30-10 PM. Go to <http://www.ralumni.com/RumaaDinner2011> For Tickets.

Where?

The Rutgers Student Center Multipurpose Room on College Avenue in New Brunswick (Attendees may park in Lot 30 behind the Student Center)

Cost

Early bird (by 6/10): $35/adult (& children age 13+), $20/child age 3-12, $65/couple.
After 6/10, $40/adult (& Children age 13+), $25/child age 3-12, $75/couple.

More Info? Go to <http://rumaa.wordpress.com>